Our Founder, Meng Yee

Handcrafted Lacquerware, est. 2002

The journey of Qua began with a trip to Vietnam in 2002, where our founder, Meng Yee, was mesmerised by the high-quality craftsmanship of a workshop we continue to work closely with to this day.

Embracing this partnership — where the idea first took root — the name “Qua” was inspired by the Vietnamese word for “gift.”

Qua was born from a desire to breathe meaning into gifting and, as a brand, is synonymous with meticulous artistry, crafting distinctive lacquerware that lasts for generations.

Handmade by Artisans, Designed to Endure

We were among the first in Singapore to offer a refined range of lacquerware spanning home accessories and gifts.

Each piece is painstakingly handmade and polished, giving it a rich, enduring lustre. Working with natural lacquer demands patience and skill — its sublime sheen is the hallmark of our craft.

Proudly Singaporean

We actively collaborate with Singaporean artists and companies, so every piece is more than décor — it's a celebration of Asian culture and our nation. Many of our well-loved designs now extend into complementary items such as cushions and card cases.

We are immensely honoured to have produced numerous customised items for our esteemed clients from leading companies and the public sector over the years. We look forward to many more years of successful products and collections.

Since 2023, Qua has been recognised as a Made With Passion brand.

Every company is built different.

A great way to showcase your company's distinguishing characteristics is by customising your very own quality crafted lacquerware. Create a meaningful and personal piece that stands out from others and leaves a good impression on the recipients.

From deciding on an item to designing it, Qua will walk with you through the process, hand in hand.

To cater to all your needs and desires, we have three types of customisations: Ready-made Customisation, Artwork Personalisation, and Fully Bespoke Creations.

Kindly email us your enquiries at enquiry@brexinternational.com.sg, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Ready-Made Customisation

Quick and fuss-free

Approx. 5—7 working days

An easy way of customisation is to simply add a touch of your corporate identity onto our wide range of ready-made Qua collections. Here, you can add your logo, company ethos, or a personalised message in your choice of either silk screen printing or metal plate printing.

Ready-Made Customisation

Silkscreen Printing

Silkscreen printing is a favoured option for those who prefer a more subtle and sleek aesthetic. It is more suited to those who are ordering larger quantities as individual pieces of the order cannot have varying customisation.

Metal Plate Printing

Metal plate printing is a flexible option, allowing for those who wish to have individually personalised pieces. You may customise each metal plate to have a different name or message with this option.

Bespoke Creations

A creation that is only and exclusively yours

Tailor-make your lacquer piece to fit your exact specifications and purposes.

Share your needs with us and we would be happy to discuss more.

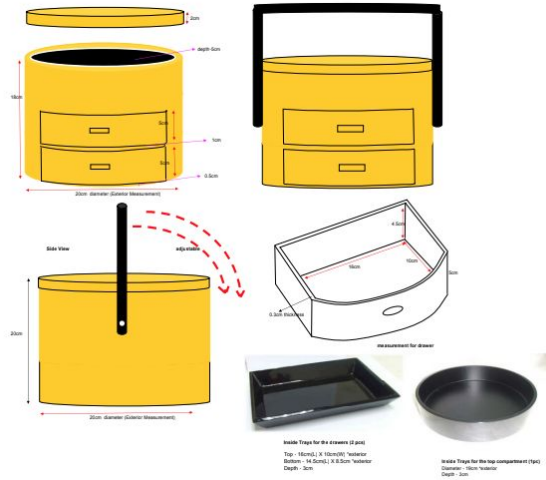

Qua will walk with you throughout the smooth process – conceptualising the product, choosing the right size and materials, designing an artwork, perfect packaging, and arranging for delivery. We hope to give you a carefree, personal experience, where you can enjoy the process of making your own creation.

Artwork Personalisation

If you already have an artwork or image that is symbolic or meaningful to your company, share it with us and we will add it onto our products. With the impeccable craftsmanship of our partnered workshops, you can rest assured to receive a creation of the highest quality. A personalised lacquer piece will be suited for not only corporate gifts on all occasions, but also as hotel amenities.

Product Development

We will sit down with you, listen to your ideas, and understand your needs. Speak with us on your requirements – size, shape, and colour – and we will materialise them.

Commissioned Artwork

You may commission your very own artwork from our panel of talented and skilled artists. Each one of them possesses their own artistic styles and flair, and you may select one that is most suited for your corporation. Translate your ideas into an art piece that is exclusively yours.

Packaging & Distribution

Complete your bespoke creation with custom packaging. Add a personalised note, choose the material and colour of the box, and finish it with a designed sleeve. Lastly, for your convenience, we can arrange the delivery of your items, with options for multiple locations or even overseas.

Festive Greetings

Proudly Singaporean, Qua seeks to amplify the Asian culture and celebrations here.

Join us to create uniquely festival-appropriate gifts for your esteemed clients, customers and collectors.

Customised Mooncake Box

Client: Andaz Hotel Singapore

Type of customisation: Product Development

The highly glossy lacquer boxes are donned with distinctly unique Peranakan for a touch of heritage while maintaining an overall modern and classy look. The mooncake boxes are versatile enough to be converted into an accessory or tea box after the end of the mooncake festival.

Customised Mooncake Box

Client: Sheraton Hotel Singapore

Type of customisation: Product Development

The featured painting on the luxurious lacquer box is a specially commissioned painting by renowned Chinese artist Fan Zeng, displayed at the restaurant in the hotel, Li Bai. We've specially customised the dimensions of the box for storage of mooncakes, as well as a duo use of a watch box.

Customised Stationery Box

Client: UOB Singapore

Type of customisation: Artwork Personalisation

Qua's existing small stationery gets a fresh festive cover for the Year of the Rabbit. The water painting is by UOB artist of the year, our long-term partner, Aaron Gan. UOB's logo resides on the interior of the cover.

Mother-of-Pearl inlay Coasters & Holder

Client: DBS Singapore & Singapore Airlines

Type of customisation: Product Development

A deep red lacquer was used for the extra festive vibes, topped off with an iridescence and mysterious mother-of-pearl inlay in Chinese calligraphy, written by the senior management in the company.

Meaningful Gifts — Daily

Be it for a special occasion or just simply as a way to express your appreciation for those to matter, Qua ensures that your gifts will now be made extra meaningful and precious, with your very own DNA infused within.

Tray, Trinket Box & Bowls

Client: Singapore Airlines

Type of customisation: Artwork Personalisation

Singapore Airlines' iconic batik print was immortalised in a beautiful, practical set of lacquerware for everyday use.
