MADE WITH PASSION SINGAPORE

ABOUT QUA:

The journey of Qua began from a trip to Vietnam in 2002, where the founder Meng Yee was mesmerized by the high-quality craftsmanship of a particular workshop that she was at – whom we work closely with till date. Embracing the partnership and where the idea took root, the name “Qua” is inspired by an abbreviation of 'gifts' in Vietnamese. Qua was born from the desire to breathe meaning into gifting, and as a brand, it is synonymous with meticulous artistry which crafts distinctive lacquerware that lasts generations.

SG60 Launch - Harmony Tapestry

New Arrival

The Harmony Tapestry is a tribute to Singapore's 60th birthday this 2025, celebrating six decades of resilience, progress, and unity.

Just as Singapore has flourished through harmony and diversity, this tapestry is a symbol of our nation's unwavering spirit as we step into the next chapter of our journey. SG60 is not just a milestone, but a celebration of the unity that makes us stronger together.

About the artist: Nicolette Wong

"My approach to design is marked by a steadfast commitment to thoughtful deliberation. With a strong interest in product design, storytelling and research, my goal is to solve problems creatively and effectively by understanding user needs and behaviours. I aim to create designs that resonate deeply on an emotional and experiential level, inviting users into an ongoing narrative with the world around them. Whether through intuitive product design or seamless experiences, I am committed to creating meaningful and lasting positive change."

This intricate motif reflects the rich cultural tapestry that defines our nation, drawing inspiration from the diverse ethnic groups that have shaped Singapore.

Each carefully selected design element embodies our shared heritage —

The grace of the Peony (Chinese),
the elegance of the Batik (Malay),
the intricacy of Buttis (Indian), and the charm of Portuguese influences (Eurasian).

SHOPHOUSE BLESSINGS

Shophouse Blessing Series

Qua x Jessica Wong presents the Shophouse Blessings Series, inspired by Singapore's rich history and heritage found in shophouses. These desk organisers feature the key design elements of a Singaporean shophouse, namely — the facade, which is richly decorated with elements drawn from a mix of cultures across East and West; the side elevation, which features a pitched roof for our rainy weather, the five-foot way, designed to give passage to the community in all weather; and the slanted structure, which was done to cleverly take advantage of the maximum area when aligning the front facades along roads, as well as the back for the back lanes. In our Singapore Shophouse Blessings Series, we have included the characters in Chinese that are used to wish blessings upon the receiver, which can also be found on windows and doors of shophouses in Singapore. These elements of the facade together with the blessings are intricately painted with gold foil.

With the blessings '长发兴隆 - Always Thriving & Prosperous', '福乐安康 - Bliss, Joy, Peace, Health' and '和睦相处 - To Live in Harmony', this is the ideal practical gift to express your wishes while also serving as a keepsake.

About the artist: Jessica Wong

Her work has won design awards including a Special Commendation at the President's Design Award (2014), ASEAN Furniture Design Award (2018) and Singapore Creator Awards (2019). Passionate about design, she also serves as an adjunct lecturer, sharing her design experience with students at the tertiary level. Her designs are inspired by stories and shifus (mastercraftsmen) and beautifully brings tradition together with modernity.

Lunar New Year

TRADITIONAL HOME

Observing traditions is especially enjoyable during the Lunar New Year where embracing customs can bring special meaning to the occasion.

CHERRY BLOSSOM

Cherry Blossom

Lunar New Year starts with spring flowers in blossom. The blossoms' transience, the extreme beauty and quick demise, is an enduring metaphor for the fleeting nature of life. Our Cherry Blossom collection has captured the beauty of this symbol. Every piece reflects life's beauty and wonders as symbolised by the Cherry Blossom, which our craftsmen had successfully infused into the collection.

ZODIAC

Zodiac

The Chinese way of measuring time includes using 10 Heavenly Stems ("天干" Tian Gan), and 12 Earthly Branches (地支 Di Zhi). The signs are used to designate the time period (時辰 Shi Chen, which are 2 hour intervals of our usual time), days, months and years. It is believed that our innate characters are defined by the years which we are born in, represented by the 12 zodiac animals — much like astrology signs. In this collection, Qua presents a series of red and black lacquerware with Chinese calligraphy characters that hide details of the animals; as well as a set of intricate and colourful metal trinkets.

The 12 zodiac animals are a big part of the Chinese culture. Besides the more commonly known 12-year cycle, we also use it in time-telling, in periods, days, months. In this collection, the Chinese characters of the animals hide some Easter eggs in plain sight. Find the respective animals' little details in the gold calligraphy artwork! Can you spot the tiger's tail and rabbit in the picture on the left?
